Watford City is located in the heart of western North Dakota's premier vacation attractions.

15 miles south is the beautiful Theodore Roosevelt National Park, North Unit which hosts a 14-mile scenic byway drive. Wildlife, including over 200 head of bison, is easily visible. The north trailhead of the world-renowned Maah-Daah-Hey Trail is located across of the Little Missouri River, minutes from the national park entrance, just waiting to be explored by horseback, mountain bike or by foot. 26 miles to the north is a year-round fisherman's dream at Tobacco Garden's Resort & Marina. 50 miles to the west explore Fort Buford, Fort Union Trading Post and the Confluence of the Missouri and Yellowstone River. 45 miles to the east step back in time at the Mandan, Hidatsa, Arikara (MHA) Earth Lodge Village & Interpretive Center on the banks of Lake Sakakawea.

Watford City offers the Wild West Water Park & Splash Zone or check out the indoor aquatic center, with its own slide and lazy river, at the Rough Rider Center. The Children's Park on Main Street will entertain the youngsters. For a more active afternoon, take in 18-holes of rolling prairies golf at Fox Hills.

At the end of the day, Watford City provides unexpected amenities and comforts. We feature more than 800 rooms in stunning hotels, dozens of restaurants from fine dining to casual eateries, busy cocktail bars, and an energetic downtown.

With so much to offer, you may wish to extend your stay.

Badlands. Good Times.
